

WAYS' APPROACH
www.waysresearch.com

Initial Assessment

Are the involved fields covered by WAYS' expertise?

No

Can the Customer invest in WAYS' training or education in the field?

No

Reject the case

Yes

Yes

Is the Customer's problem or need a health issue of a specific individual?

Yes

Interact with the Customer's physician(s)

Arrange for the proper education or training of WAYS' personnel to be able to apply WAYS' skills to the problem/need of the Customer during and/or after WAYS' training

Problem or need identification

No

Is (are) the root cause(s) known?

No

Yes or n/a

Research relevant scientific literature and WAYS' internal archive
↓
Correlate the above with WAYS' experience
↓
Summarize the findings

Is a solution or treatment already available?

Yes

Interact with the Customer's physician(s)

Brainstorm with the client to collect additional data and explore additional hypothetical correlations with facts, symptoms, and with WAYS' above findings

Research relevant scientific literature and WAYS' internal archive
↓
Correlate the above with WAYS' experience

Release an optimized protocol, which improves pre-existing or standard solutions

Research relevant scientific literature, case reports, and WAYS' internal archive
↓
Integrate the above with WAYS' experience

Draw scientifically sound hypothesis

Perform a re-assessment with the client and an expanded anamnesys based on the above hypothesis / conclusions

Consult with external scientific advisors if necessary

Thorough brainstorming and re-analysis of the situation

Draft a protocol of possible solutions, treatments, and/or tests

Discuss the above with the external scientific advisors if necessary

Does it involve any sort of treatment or hypothetical cure for a health issue of one or more specific persons?

Yes

Inform the person's physician(s) and discuss it in a team-effort

No

Discuss the above with the client

Release WAYS' FINAL PROTOCOL for the client

Follow-ups and updates as needed